

January 3rd, 2018

PRESS RELEASE- FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Mayor Chris Duncan and Public Works Director Michael Daigle urge residents to conserve water during the next several days as temperatures continue to dip below freezing. Water conservation is critical for our systems to rebuild and maintain pressure in order to avoid a boil advisory. Faucets need only to run a steady drip to avoid freezing. When temperatures are above freezing, all running faucets should be turned off.

###