NAVIGATING THE ROAD TO RECOVERY

HURRICANE LAURA WEBSITE

NEWS DESK: 225-389-2408

Key Messages:

- Deadline to register for FEMA help is less than 30 Days away: renters and homeowners in designated parishes have until Oct. 27 to register for help. For eligible survivors needing a safe, sanitary and functional place to live while they're repairing their homes, direct temporary housing assistance has been approved for Allen, Beauregard, Calcasieu, Cameron, Jefferson Davis and Vernon parishes. Assistance may include a temporary housing unit, a direct lease for a ready-for-occupancy existing property, or a multi-family lease of rental property.
- Drive-thru Recovery Centers (DRCs) are all back open today after severe weather across Louisiana caused several DRCs to stay closed Monday. The DRCs are for Hurricane Laura survivors to register for federal disaster assistance and get answers about their applications.
- FEMA has approved a 30-day extension for Public Assistance requested by the Louisiana's Governor's Office of Homeland Security and Emergency Preparedness (GOHSEP). The new deadline for submitting PA for Hurricane Laura is now Oct. 27.
- Survivors who registered with FEMA for disaster assistance will receive a determination letter explaining the eligibility decision and the reason for that decision. For those who are eligible, the letter states the dollar amount of the grant and how the funds should be used. When ineligible, the letter explains why and how the applicant can appeal that decision. Many of these issues can be easily resolved by visiting disasterassistance.gov or by calling the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-3362 (TTY 800-462-7585). You can also register through the FEMA Mobile App. To download text either ANDROID or APPLE to 43362.

Once survivors have registered with FEMA for assistance no further application is required for Direct Housing. Survivors do not need to register twice.

- The State of Louisiana is asking you not to donate unsolicited goods for Hurricane Laura survivors. This will improve coordination with disaster relief organizations and local and state emergency managers so those in need receive the right help. The easiest way to help is to donate cash. For more information, visit gov.louisiana.gov/page/hurricane-laura-donations

FEMA Helping Survivors:

- To date, FEMA has put more than $142 million in the hands of survivors, including nearly $98 million for housing assistance and $45 million for other needs assistance. FEMA has registered 173,131 households. Visit disasterloanassistance.sba.gov or call 800-659-2955 for more information.

- Hurricane Laura survivors can apply by visiting disasterassistance.gov or by calling the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-3362 (TTY 800-462-7585). You can also register through the FEMA Mobile App. To download text either ANDROID or APPLE to 43362.

FEMA Corps members help with the opening of the new Drive-thru Recovery Center located in Grant Parish on September 27.

- FEMA External Civil Rights Advisors are deployed to disasters to ensure nondiscrimination of FEMA recipients on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, disability, English proficiency, and economic status. Those who have civil rights questions, need to file or check on the status of a civil rights complaint contact the Civil Rights Resource Line at 833-285-7448. You can also get more information at: fema.gov/about/offices/equal-rights/civil-rights. Additionally, you can also call 833-285-7488 or go to <https://intranet.fema.net/org/oa/ooer/Pages/RA.aspx> for information about reasonable accommodations.

- ✓ Do you have questions on how to repair your home after Hurricane Laura? Is retrofitting right for you? Are there simple things you can do to reduce damage to your home? Find out! Call 866-579-0820 and speak to a Community Education Specialist. They are available Monday through Saturday, 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. CDT or email us at FEMA-MitOutreach-4559@fema.dhs.gov

- Help spread the word: if anyone receives a letter saying they are ineligible for FEMA assistance, they should not be discouraged. They just may need to provide additional information. In fact, missing documentation and not enough damage to essential living spaces are among the most common reasons survivors can initially be found ineligible.

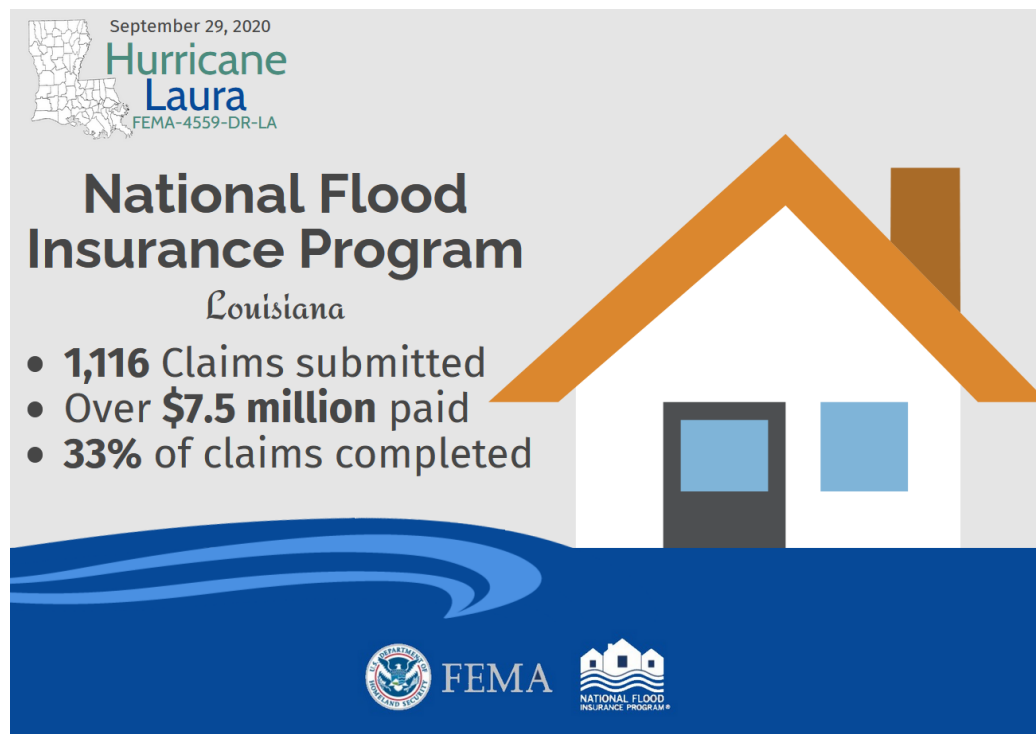

Aaron Kubey, a FEMA Certified Deaf Interpreter and Karen Mann with FEMA's Individual Assistance Program talk about understanding your FEMA letter and how to appeal a FEMA decision. To watch the video, go to youtube.com/watch?v=M1a6lYO5hgY&feature=youtu.be

- Examples of missing documentation include an insurance settlement letter, proof of residence, proof of ownership of the property or proof that the damaged property was your primary residence at the time of the disaster. The goal of FEMA housing assistance is to ensure people live in safe, sanitary and functional housing.
- FEMA assistance is not insurance. Your home may have suffered storm damage, but if it did not affect essential living space, you may not be determined eligible for assistance. FEMA considers the kitchen, living room, bathroom and occupied bedrooms as essential living spaces.

- If anyone thinks an error was made regarding their case, they have the right to appeal. The appeal must be in writing and include new information or documentation. Start the process and get assistance with their appeal letter by calling FEMA at 800-621-3362 (TTY 800-462-7585).
- FEMA cautions those receiving disaster assistance that funds can only be spent for disaster-related expenses. FEMA provides letters to survivors of Hurricane Laura that detail the approved uses for grants. These may include: repairs to make a home habitable, rental assistance for temporary housing, repair or replacement of a disaster-damaged essential vehicle, medical care for an injury caused by the disaster, replacing clothing, occupational tools and educational materials and moving and storage expenses related to the disaster.
- Survivors choosing to return to damaged homes need to be sure they're safe. Because many areas may not have reliable power, those returning should have adequate food, water, medications, bug repellent, batteries and cellphone chargers. Walk carefully around the outside of your home and property and check for loose power lines, gas leaks and structural damage. If unsure, ask a qualified building inspector or structural engineer before entering. Enter your home carefully and check for loose boards and slippery floors. If your home looks like it may collapse, leave immediately. For more information on what to look for when reentering your home, go to ready.gov/returning-home

NFIP Helping Survivors:

- As of Sept. 28, the National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP) has paid more than $7 million to Hurricane Laura survivors. Policy holders should follow these steps to move their claims forward:
 - Contact your insurance agent to report your loss. If you can't remember the name or number of the insurance company that services your FEMA flood policy, call the NFIP at 877-336-2627 to find out. Or email floodsmart@fema.dhs.gov.
 - Take videos and photos of all damaged property inside and out. Good evidence of damage can help get you up to $5,000 in advance payment on your claim.

- Keep all receipts and record the time spent performing the work to submit to the insurance adjuster when you file your claim.
- For a video on NFIP myths, go here: youtu.be/a9P-6kKLjkl

SBA Helping Survivors:

- Additionally, the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) has approved nearly $155 million in low interest loans to help Louisiana hurricane survivors recover. Disaster loans up to $200,000 are available to homeowners to repair or replace damaged or destroyed real estate. Homeowners and renters are eligible for up to $40,000 to repair or replace damaged or destroyed personal property. Visit disasterloanassistance.sba.gov or call 800-659-2955.

USACE Helping Survivors:

- Time is running out to sign up for Operation Blue Roof. Homeowners in eligible parishes have until Sept. 30 to apply. So far, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers (USACE) has installed 5,500 temporary roofs. This is a free service offered through USACE. To get your name on the list call 888-766-3258 or visit usace.army.mil/bluerroof.
- Temporary blue roofs are offered through USACE and they are FREE. There is no cost to the homeowner for application OR installation. If someone tells you otherwise or attempts to charge you, THEY ARE NOT with USACE or associated with this program. USACE contractors will have a work order which includes your name, address, and most importantly, your 16 digit right-of-entry number. If all the criteria are not met, then they do not represent USACE. If you believe they are fraudulent and misrepresenting the government, contact local law enforcement

Louisiana Helping Survivors:

- The Governor's Office of Homeland Security & Emergency Preparedness (GOHSEP) is working closely with local, state, tribal and federal officials; private-sector partners; and private nonprofits (PNPs) to manage the impacts of Hurricane Laura. For more information, visit: gohsep.la.gov.
- The State of Louisiana has launched an online hub for Hurricane Laura information at hurricanelaura.la.gov, which highlights news and links to resources. Additionally, the governor's office has also established a Laura-specific texting list to give people wanting updates on Hurricane Laura. Text LAURA to 67283 to receive updates.
- Emergency housing remains a major focus, as impacted residents are filling up designated facilities. As of Monday, 9,601 hurricane survivors are sheltering in Louisiana in 4,213 hotel rooms. If you need shelter, text LAShelter to 898-211 for information about where to go or call 211.
- The Louisiana Department of Transportation and Development (LaDOT) has almost removed 88 percent of the debris caused by Hurricane Laura. For updates on debris removal in your area, visit LADOTD's debris clean-up tracking dashboard at 511la.org.

Safety Messages:

- Covid-19
 - Take care of yourself first. If you feel sick, please contact your supervisor immediately
 - Social distance when possible and wear your face covering
 - Report an emergency by calling 911 or contact your supervisor
- Carbon monoxide poisoning
 - Even though the number of power outages have dropped, there are still many people using generators as a source of energy. Remember to keep them well ventilated by keeping them outdoors and away from doors and windows.
